

Jim Michaud / Journal Inquirer

Her work paid-off

Jean Risely, center, cheers during a ground breaking ceremony Sunday for a new memorial that will honor all 612 state residents who died during the Vietnam War. Risley's brother, Robert Tillquist, was killed 40 years ago while serving in Vietnam. Risley was a driving force behind having the memorial built.